

HR Matters – Fitter, Leaner..... (but not meaner)

Tuesday 13th September 2011

Ramada Piccadilly

8.30am - 10.30am

Cost to attend: £25 plus VAT /£50 plus VAT non members

Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce would like to invite you to the first in a series of topical seminars designed to help employers tackle current HR and people issues.

In partnership with Blue Sky Law, each session will provide guidance and practical help in understanding the legal position, how it affects your business, and how you can create workable solutions.

Fitter, leaner...(but not meaner) will show you how to deal with lay offs, redundancies, and changing staff contracts. The seminar will focus on the range of solutions, including both redundancy and the alternatives to redundancy. It will set out the steps that businesses should consider and how they can avoid the pitfalls.

The sessions will be of benefit to HR managers, HR directors, Operations directors, Office managers and anyone else who is tasked with managing people.

About Blue Sky Law

Lee Jecott is Head of Employment at specialist law firm Blue Sky Law. He has over 10 years experience in advising business and individuals on employment law issues. He represents clients at Employment Tribunals throughout the UK.

Lee is often asked to comment in the media on employment law developments. He also writes for specialist publications such as Personnel Today and is a freelance lecturer at BPP Law School.

For further information www.employmentlawyersmanchester.co.uk

To book a place click here or Download a booking form click here